

International Conference: ‘New Perspectives on Garcilaso de la Vega’ / Congreso Internacional: Nuevas Perspectivas sobre Garcilaso de la Vega

CALL FOR PAPERS

We are pleased to announce the Call for Papers for the International Conference ‘New Perspectives on Garcilaso de la Vega’/Congreso Internacional: Nuevas perspectivas sobre Garcilaso de la Vega to take place on Thursday, 30th May 2024.

This interdisciplinary conference will bring together scholars from the fields of Italian, Spanish and Classical Studies to present the most recent innovations in scholarship on the major sixteenth-century Spanish poet Garcilaso de la Vega. It will form the first professional collaboration between UK institutions and the international research group PRONAPOLI (<https://pronapoli.com/>). We are pleased to announce that Prof. Eugenia Fosalba (Universitat de Girona) will be the keynote speaker.

The conference will end with a book launch for Dr Rich Rabone’s monograph Moderation and the Mean in the Literature of Spain's Golden Age: A Measure for Measure.

Papers may address, but are not limited to, the following topics:

- The Neapolitan literary context of the first decades of the Cinquecento
- The relationship between Latin and the vernacular in sixteenth-century Naples
- Classical reception in the work of Garcilaso and his contemporaries
- The reception of Garcilaso in Spain

We invite abstract submissions for 15-minute presentations in English (to take place in person or online) from researchers at all stages.

Abstracts should consist of no more than 200 words and should be submitted by Wednesday, 10th April 2024 to maria.czepiel@lincoln.ox.ac.uk. Applicants will be notified of acceptance by Wednesday 1st May 2024.

This conference has been generously supported by the Faculty of Medieval and Modern Languages at the University of Oxford, the Balliol Interdisciplinary Institute, and the AHGBI Visiting International Fellowship Scheme in partnership with the University of Warwick.
